The screenshot shows the Amtrak website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for Guest Rewards, Join, Sign In, English, and Need help? Ask Julie. There's also a search bar and a user icon. Below the navigation, there are tabs for DESTINATIONS, EXPERIENCE, DEALS, and SCHEDULES. To the right of these tabs are buttons for TRAIN STATUS and MODIFY TRIP. The main content area displays search results for a one-way trip from Philadelphia, PA (30th Street Station) to New York, NY (Penn Station). The results show two options: a 180 Northeast Regional train departing at 7:22 am on Friday, September 21, and arriving at 8:44 am. The fare is $39.00. A detailed view of the first result is shown on the right, including traveler information (1 traveler), trip details (180 Northeast Regional, SAVER FARE), and fare breakdown (1 Adult: $39.00, 1 Reserved Coach Seat: Included). The Amtrak logo is visible at the top left of the page.

The screenshot shows the Amtrak website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for DESTINATIONS, EXPERIENCE, DEALS, SCHEDULES, Guest Rewards, Join, Sign In, English, Need help? Ask Julie, a search icon, and a user profile icon. Below the navigation, there are two search results. The first result is for a One-Way trip from New York, NY (Penn Station) to Philadelphia, PA (30th Street Station) on 8/30/2018. The fare is $39.00. The second result is for the same route and date, but it's a 95 Northeast Regional train, departing at 10:35 am and arriving at 11:57 am. It also lists 1 traveler and includes links for Details, Terms & Conditions, and a breakdown of the fare components.
